This course focuses on the experiences of Black American women from social, economic, political, practical, communal and gendered perspectives. Topics include women’s organizations, work, family, race relations, prisons, radicalism, and the feminization of poverty.

History 2512; AMST 2512; FGSS 2512; ASRC 2512  TR 11:40-12:55