The U.S. in the World
1898-the present

Focusing on pivotal moments in U.S. political and cultural foreign relations, themes include the U.S. response to a Revolutionary world since 1898, U.S. responses to colonialism and anti-colonialism, and the roles of different parts of the government from the presidents to the CIA in the making of U.S. foreign policy.

M W 11:15-12:05
With Tuesday discussions

Penny Von Eschen