HISTORY 3300/ASIAN 3335: Japan from War to Prosperity

J. V. Koschmann

An interpretation of Japanese history from the late-1920s to present, emphasizing mobilization for total war and its continuing legacies, technology and organized capitalism, relations with the U.S. and Asian neighbors, social integration and exclusion, historical representation and consciousness, and political dynamics.

Fall 2016

Lec. WF 1:25; sections M 12:20 & 1:25